

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

P R E F A C E.

Few gentlemen in the Civil Service have performed, for any length of time, the duties of their stations, without experiencing the inconvenience arising from the want of a general Alphabetical Index to the numerous Regulations which have been enacted for their guidance during the last thirty-seven years ; and which have now attained to so great a bulk, and undergone so many and important alterations, that, even with the most retentive memory, and a very extensive knowledge of their contents, it is frequently found impossible to refer to the rules on any particular subject, without a long and laborious search, for which the various duties which the officers of Government are required to perform leave very little time or opportunity.

Section 10, Regulation XLI. of 1793, and the corresponding enactment for the Ceded Provinces, contained in the Regulations of 1803, provide that “at the expiration of each year, a copious Index to the Regulations passed in the course of it, shall be prepared and bound up with them ;” but, as each of these is applicable only to the Regulations of one year, and it has consequently become necessary to consult no less than thirty-seven of them before the provisions on any one subject can be ascertained from them, it is obvious that they can now be of very little practical utility ; while the possibility of uniting them into one General Index for the whole Code, is precluded, by their having been constructed on a plan by which, instead of a direct reference to the Regulations themselves, all subordinate heads are referred to a few principal ones, which are found to vary in the indices of each year.

The Public in general, and more particularly the officers of Government, to whom the administration of the Laws is intrusted, are, no doubt, greatly indebted to Messrs. HARRINGTON, BLUNT, SHAKESPEAR, and others, for their very useful and valuable publications ; but it is conceived that the necessity for a General Index is by no means superseded by the works in question. It appears desirable, on the contrary, that, as the Regulations extend in bulk, additional aids should be afforded to their study, and systematic examination ; and it is therefore believed, that the present work, which was originally undertaken with a view to the Compiler’s personal convenience, will prove acceptable to his brethren in the Service, and specially to those employed in the Judicial and Revenue Departments, several of whom, during his lifetime, expressed a desire for its publication.

The Index refers to the Regulations enacted for Benares and the Western Provinces, as well as those for Bengal, Behar, and Orissa ; but does not include any enactment not in force at the time of its publication. The lamented death of the Author, only two days after preparing the last leaf of the Index for the press, prevented his compiling an Appendix, as he intended, containing a complete list of alterations, modifications and omissions, chronologically arranged ; as well as triennial Supplements, for the Regulations enacted during the period they embraced. The Index itself, however, contains 16,000 references, instead of 14,000, as originally promised ; and a brief tabular sketch of alterations, which have been made during its progress through the press, is added, which will enable a person consulting it, to ascertain the state of the law at the end of the year 1830, the latest possible period.

LIST OF LAW PUBLICATIONS,

ALL THE LATEST EDITIONS.

The whole printed at the BAPTIST MISSION PRESS, and to be procured of Messrs. THACKER & Co. St. Andrew's Library, Calcutta; and Mr. G. WOOD, Lithographic Press, Cawnpore.

THE REGULATIONS AND LAWS enacted by the GOVERNOR GENERAL IN COUNCIL, for the CIVIL GOVERNMENT of the whole of the Territories under the PRESIDENCY of FORT WILLIAM, complete from 1793 to December 1828, 8 vols. 4to. neatly bound in calf and lettered, per set. Sa. Rs. 250

. In this edition, which is handsomely executed, the whole of the Regulations, Sections, or Clauses rescinded, are printed in Italic type; so that a single glance of the eye informs the reader, whether any particular provision is yet in force or not. In fact, no trouble or expense has been spared to make this edition as useful as possible.

The new edition of the REGULATIONS of GOVERNMENT is also published, ARRANGED on the plan of Mr. MOLONY'S SYNOPSIS, and thus divided into volumes according to SUBJECTS. On this plan, Vol. I. II. and III. contain all Regulations referring to the JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT;—Vol. IV. V. and VI. all those relating to the REVENUE DEPARTMENT;—Vol. VII. those connected with the CUSTOMS, SALT and OPIUM; the COMMERCIAL, and the GENERAL DEPARTMENTS;—while Vol. VIII. contains Titles of Regulations, and Indexes to each year. The price of the work thus arranged, continued to the end of 1828, bound in calf and lettered, with a copy of MOLONY'S SYNOPSIS, uniformly bound, is. 300

To meet the wishes of those who desire to have the work in as portable a shape as possible, a few copies have been prepared, in which the Regulations entirely rescinded are omitted.

To render this edition complete, wherever a Regulation refers to more than one department, duplicates (and where necessary, triplicates) are supplied.

AN ANNUAL CONTINUATION of both editions, price 1 Rupee per 8 pp.

"All those concerned in the administration of official duties, as well as all those in any way interested in the general administration of affairs in this country, must have felt the great inconvenience arising from the want of a more generally diffused acquaintance with the Regulations of Government. On this account, the Public Servant, the Planter, the Merchant, and the Trader, are liable to incur continual loss and inconvenience, from the difficulty of ascertaining the rules which bear upon their several transactions."—PROSPECTUS.

"The mechanical execution of the work is of that neat and superior kind for which the Press it is issued from is well known; and it may also be mentioned, as a matter worthy of typographical remark, that it is, we believe, the most extensive work that has ever emanated from the Indian Press."—GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, MARCH, 1830.

PRINSEP'S ABSTRACT OF THE CIVIL JUDICIAL REGULATIONS, as in force Jan. 1, 1829, Royal 4to. bound and lettered. 26

"Our attention has also been directed to another publication that has recently issued from the same press [as the Regulations,] and to which similar praise of excellent mechanical workmanship applies. The auctorial execution of it, on the other hand, considering that it called for no common talents at collating, compressing, and arranging, cannot be adverted to otherwise than in terms of well merited approbation.

"No member of the Civil Service should, we think, be without one or other of these works, if not both, [the Regulations and Mr. Prinsep's Abstract,] comprising, as they do, much important matter, affecting such a vast extent of territory and population; while to those engaged in commerce and speculating in internal trade and agricultural pursuits, it is obvious they will be occasionally useful."—GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, MARCH, 1830.

"A highly useful work. Mr. Prinsep merits the thanks of the Government, the Service, and the whole community, for presenting them with a work, which will save so much labour of reference to the voluminous code of Regulations; which must have cost him so much labour; and which is executed with so much skill and judgment, as to answer perfectly the objects contemplated by its author. The paper is beautiful, and the mechanical arrangement and typography reflect high credit on the Baptist Mission Press."—BENGAL HURKAU, FEB. 1829.

MACNAGHTEN'S REPORTS of CASES determined in the NIZAMUT ADAWLUT, 2 vols. royal 8vo. bound; with the ANNUAL CONTINUATIONS for 1827 and 1828, stitched, 56
ANNUAL CONTINUATION of ditto, 1 rupee per 12 pp.

MACNAGHTEN'S PRINCIPLES and PRECEDENTS of HINDU LAW, being a Compilation of Primary Rules relative to the Doctrine of Inheritance, Contracts, and Miscellaneous Subjects; and a Selection of Legal Opinions involving those Points, delivered in the several Courts of Judicature, subordinate to the Presidency of Fort William; together with Notes illustrative and explanatory, and Preliminary Remarks; 2 vols. royal 8vo. bound.

"Within our limited space we can give our readers a very imperfect view of the contents of this valuable work. After the Preliminary Remarks, we have a very clear and able digest of Hindu Law, on the various subjects of Proprietary Right—Inheritance—Stridhun or woman's separate property—Partition—Marriage—Adoption—Minority—Slavery—and Contracts; and the author's opinions, where they admit of dispute, are supported by ample references to, and quotations from the best European and Native authorities, including the Reports of Cases decided by the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut. The second volume contains a collection of Opinions of the Hindu Law Officers attached to the several Courts of Judicature subordinate to the Presidency of Fort William, with reference to questions propounded to them by the Judges of those Courts. These opinions are compiled and arranged in illustration of the principles contained in the preceding volume, and under nearly similar heads; but they may justly be considered as forming a separate and independent work. Of the labour which has been bestowed upon it, and of the value which may be attached to such a collection of precedents, an opinion may be formed from the Introductory Remarks."—INDIA GAZETTE, MARCH, 1830.

"Precisely such a General Index to the Regulations as appeared to us desirable. We have now the loose sheets of the work before us as far as the 336th page, which include 11,046 references; and from the beauty and accuracy with which it appears to be executed, corresponding in these respects with the editions of the Regulations to which we have already referred, it cannot but be an invaluable aid to all who consult that voluminous and complicated code of law."—INDIA GAZETTE, MARCH, 1830.
To accommodate those who possess a copy of the late Mr. WHITE's edition of the REGULATIONS, a few copies extra of the years he did not publish, viz. 1803, and from 1822 to the present time, have been printed, or are in the press.
